NEWSLETTER No. 4 — 10 October 2022

Msp Beach Tennis Cagliari

From 15th to 18th September 2022 hundreds of beach tennis players met in a beautiful holiday resort 4 Mori Family Village to celebrate the beauty of the "Sport for all" idea together.

Italian Team from Civitavecchia won the European Championships!

During the four days, hundreds of exciting matches were played under the Sardinian sun. Many talented athletes were competing for the titles of the best in various categories.

The European Beach Tennis Championships has had a participation of 172 players from 15 nationalities, who have played more than 290 matches in 27 categories during the four days of the tournament.

From the IFBT perspective, the most important for us is offering you, your friends and your families, the ideal environment, and the great atmosphere where you can enjoy all the aspects of a great competition.

The most exciting category, as always, was the Nations Competition. Everyone was impressed by the great triumph of Civitavecchia in the PRO and Advanced category.

The results of the top category „Pro" were: In Men's Doubles Pro the Italian pair formed by Luca Amaducci and Federico Boerner beat in the final the last world champions 2022 the French Charles Cubertafond and the Catalan Oliver Garcia. In Women's Doubles Pro the pair Lilian Caprioli from Brazil and Zanna Tarasevica from Latvia beat the Polish Iwona Urbanczyk and Monika Norys. In Doubles Mixed Pro the French Charles Cubertafond and Hungarian Zsuzsanna Kovacs beat the Italians Luca Amaducci and Roberta Orru.

The European Championships presented the New Under 30 Category

During the 2022 European Beach Tennis Championships in Muravera, at the proposal of the MSP Movimento Sportivo Popolare, we have tested a new category - Under 30. Launching it made our event more inclusive for young players that were looking for an opportunity to compete with their peers.

This has been a good, widely accepted initiative that has allowed those younger than 30 to have the opportunity to compete every day of the Championships. We hope in the future Beach Tennis will attract a lot of new young players that will look for new challenges in their sport path.

Meet winners of our new categories:
Women's Doubles Under-30: Tetiana Chvantseva & Gaia Imbimbo.
Men's Doubles Under-30: Giovanni Farci & Francesco Cincotti.
Mixed Doubles Under-30: Francesco Cincotti & Francesca Spiga.

You can find a full list of results here.

Have you met IFBT Staff and Family?

Organizing such a successful event as the European Beach Tennis Championships would not be possible without the support of many people who worked hard long before the tournament to provide you with the highest quality tournament.

Sabrina Sannia and Roberto Valletta and their team were the tournament hosts and took care of all logistic side of the event. Also, big thanks to Pepe and the Cucumeu Bar team for serving us delicious foods and drink.

During the European Bach Tennis Championships the IFBT was represented by Paulina Godlewska and Othmane Mouhssine - they watched over the procedures and protocols and reported on the event in the social media.

Campeggio 4Mori, an extraordinary place to enjoy the best Continental Beach Tennis

IFBT Tournaments are not only about Beach Tennis and competing for the title of the best in the continent. In fact, one of our main goals is to create an opportunity for the players and their friends and families to spend quality and active time together in the beautiful natural environment.

In Sardinia our guests never have time for boredom. The days were full of exciting matches, and in the break between games they could relax on the beach or by the pool and enjoy the numerous 4 Mori Campeggio-Resort attractions.

Each day of the championship ended with a common dance, which was a great warm up before the nightlife. In the evening, players met at the Cucumeu beach bar to rest after a day full of sports emotions, have a few drinks, exchange opinions, meet new people, and reunite with old friends.

For the players' kids and for the youngest participants of the tournament, the Resort animators prepared a special evening program with many games and attractions.
