Better together!

Do you want to play in doubles during the European Beach Tennis Championships in Muravera, Sardinia (Italy), but you still don't have a partner?

We're here to help!

Visit the “looking for a partner” section on our website, check who wants to play in the same category as you and contact them via email.

Haven't found anyone from your category? To be included in the list send an email to paulina@ifbt.eu.

We want to create an inclusive and accessible environment for players by creating socially responsible initiatives. The events organized by IFBT are open to everyone, regardless of their gender, age, origin, condition or skill level of beach tennis. That is why we are honored to invite everyone to become part of the European Beach Tennis Championships by participating in this tournament.

Everyone can register and join our beach tennis family 15-18 September 2022 in Muravera, Sardinia. The only thing you need is paid IP Code - no experience, club affiliation or certificates are required.

See you in Muravera!
